

Students of Determination Policy

Policy Owner(s)	Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs	Responsible Office	Office of Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs
Approved By	Chancellor	Effective Date	Sept. 2021
		Next Review Date	Sept. 2024

Purpose

Ajman University (AU) in compliance with the “National Policy for Empowering People with Special Needs” is dedicated to ensuring that all its students have equal access to its academic programs and services. AU is committed to providing a supportive environment where students with special needs or with disability, referred to as “People of Determination”, are encouraged to join AU Community and fully participate in its academic and social experience without barriers or discrimination.

Scope

This policy shall apply to all “Students of Determination” enrolled at AU, regardless of their nationality and gender. They will also be referred to in general term as “People of Determination” (POD).

Definition

People of Determination (POD): Under the provision of the United Arab Emirates Federal Law No. 29 of 2006 and the Federal Law No. 14 of 2009, the law defines a person of determination as “every person suffering from a temporary or permanent, full or partial deficiency or infirmity in his/her physical, sensory, mental, communicational, educational or psychological abilities to an extent that limits his/her possibility of performing the ordinary requirements”.

Policy Statements

In line with Article 12 of Federal Law No. 14 of 2009, AU is committed to undertaking all necessary steps to welcome applications from students with special needs and provide them with access to equal opportunities in education and other services.

Ajman University is committed to ensuring a safe and appropriate environment for students with special needs, by making a reasonable adjustment to provide a positive academic and social experience.

It is the responsibility of the student to choose to either disclose or not disclose the disability. In case of non-disclosure during the registration period, the University is not responsible for the provision of any reasonable possible adjustments, which might comprise the provision of specific exam adjustments, learning support, housing adjustments, scholarship/ discounts, and/or parking pass.

The student should report any disability by the beginning of each semester, or during the academic year, if any.

The University will take into consideration cases where student health situation changes during the course of his/her academic studies.

To encourage the inclusion of “People of Determination” in education, AU may provide scholarship/ discount and/or a reasonable adjustment to students with a documented disability that makes them fall under one of the “People of Determination” categories recognized by the UAE Ministry of Education.

Recognized disability categories are as follows:

- Auditory Impairment
- Visual Impairment
- Physical Disability
- Mental/Intellectual disability
- Speech and Language Disorders
- Autism Spectrum Disorders

Procedures

A. Student of Determination Disclosure and Scholarship Grant

1. Upon application for an undergraduate or graduate program at AU during the admission and registration period, “People of Determination” (POD) wishing to benefit from a scholarship and/or a reasonable adjustment are encouraged to submit a request to the Office Admission and Registration. This can be done after disclosing their disability and providing supporting documents for authentication and eligibility.
2. The POD medical file and documents are submitted to Office of Medical Services for validation, assessment and approval and eventual recommendations for further student support.
3. Scholarship eligibility and/or a reasonable adjustment for students enrolled on full-time or part-time basis in any Undergraduate or Graduate program, may be set and determined by the Chancellor based on the assessment report submitted by the student or his/her family and once approved by the Office of Medical Services.

The supporting documents should include:

- Disability Card (an exception can be given by the Chancellor).
 - A current medical report (not older than 3 years) from an accredited health professional that describes the health condition/impairment, its academic impact, and mentions whether it is permanent or temporary.
4. Upon admission of a student with a disability into an undergraduate or graduate program, the Office Admission and Registration shall forward the student’s supporting documents to the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid which in turn forwards it to the Office of Medical Services for assessment and approval (Scholarship workflow procedure is initiated involving all required offices; including Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid, Office of Medical Services, and Office of the Chancellor):
 - a. The student’s file with the medical recommendations is forwarded to the Office of the Chancellor for final decision.
 - b. For some cases, a psychological assessment is required besides the submitted documents; where a referral to AU Counseling Unit is required to have a full picture of the student's needs. The recommendations are shared with the concerned deans to set the needful support for the student.

- c. The Offices of Medical Services and Scholarships and Financial Aid shall schedule an appointment with the student to discuss and conduct an evaluation of the disability, its impact on his/her academic studies, and his/her social situation.
- d. Based on the provided documents and the comprehensive interview conducted with the student, the Office of Medical Services shall raise a recommendation to the Chancellor. In light of the report findings and the applicable internal norms, the Chancellor reserves the right to allocate a Scholarship percentage to the registered student and/or any other type of support.

AU POD Scholarship Grant

Scholarships for People of Determination (POD):

- Students of Determination shall be entitled to a scholarship throughout their study at the University as per a recommendation from a specialized committee formed for this particular reason. The recommended percentage of scholarship shall be approved by the Chancellor.
- The discount applies to all undergraduate programs.
- The student must maintain a CGPA of 2.00 or higher.
- The student must visit the University clinic and have his/her case approved.
- The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid shall reflect the scholarship percentage on its system and convey the decision to the concerned student.
- The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid and the Office of Medical Services may ask the student to submit reports from time to time that justify the continuity of the support.
- The Chancellor may at any time, for any reason, cancel the scholarship given to the student.

B. Student Services for People of Determination

Ajman University provides reasonable accommodation and equal access to cocurricular activities, events, programs and services for People of Determination with documented disabilities. Cocurricular activities that are provided to People of Determination are based on their condition's limitations and specialist's recommendations. People of Determination have equitable access to recreation and sport facilities on campus as far as feasible and affordable. AU Student Housing provides safe and specially equipped accommodations designed for People of Determination. In addition, an Emergency Plan has been established that takes into consideration the requirements for People of Determination; providing them with evacuation wheelchairs, specially designed ramps and wheelchair access slope at the entrance. Moreover, AU is welcoming all students of determination, and the Counseling Unit is keen on providing them with inclusive and sustainable academic and psychological needed support on campus and virtually.

The Deanship of Student Services (DSS) offers students and applicants an opportunity for confidential disclosure of personal information relating to mental health. For those with a documented mental health condition, the DSS relevant office assesses the support needed and arranges for reasonable adjustments to be made. The type of support may vary among students. These needs may include, but not limited to:

- Behavioral, social, or emotional support.
- Sensory.
- Physical Disability.
- Speech and Language Disorders.
- Communication and Interaction.
- Dyslexia –reading.
- Dysgraphia - writing/spelling.
- Developmental coordination disorder.

The Counseling Unit shall define a mechanism by which academic needs of students with special needs could be fulfilled. Accommodations may include specific examination arrangements. The provision of accommodations will be made within the parameters of the following factors:

- The nature of student circumstances and needs following consultation with the student and examination of available evidence and relevant assessments.
- The nature of the academic program of study.
- The likely effectiveness of the adjustment in removing the disadvantage.
- The practicality of the adjustment, taking into account: disruption, health and safety issues, the reasonable expectations of others and external factors (for example, factors in relation to student placements).

Student accommodations are designed to support students with learning challenges so they can achieve their academic potential. These accommodations vary according to each case. Additional information is available in the Counseling Unit.

C. Emergency Procedures

The following Emergency Procedures for Persons with Disability are available in the Office of Medical Services:
