

On-Campus Safety Measures for Faculty Members

- All employees shall conduct Covid-19 test prior to the beginning of Fall 2020/21. Arrangements will be announced.
- Temperature checks are required prior to entry. Employees with a temperature higher than 37.5°C will not be permitted entry.
- Wearing face masks while on-campus is mandatory at all times. Wearing a face shield in classrooms, labs, or clinics is desirable.
- A minimum 2 meters of social distance from others must be maintained at all times.
- Exercise good personal hygiene habits by regularly washing hands and using the hand sanitizers installed throughout the campus.
- Faculty members who are over 60 years of age, have chronic diseases, or are pregnant should work remotely.
- Use the designated entry and exit points for each building.
- Follow the safety signage posted throughout the campus.
- Avoid group gatherings or public activities for students or with other colleagues.
- Do not allow the exchange of personal belongings, food items, stationaries, consumables and medical instruments between students.
- Keep your personal belongings and workstations sanitized. Do not share them with your colleagues.
- Ensure that each student stays at her/his designated seat or table.
- Refrain from engaging students in pairs or group activities.
- Refer any student with symptoms to the Office of Medical Services immediately; and, regularly highlight the importance of adhering to applicable safety measures.
- Refrain from using the mosque on campus, as it is dedicated for students. Bring your own prayer mat and use your personal space to pray.
- Make use of online meeting options even if you are on campus. Face to face meetings must be avoided.
- Avoid exchanging papers or documents and find ways to remain paperless at all times.
- Stay at home if you feel unwell or experience flu-like symptoms.
- If you feel unwell while on campus, contact the Office of Medical Services immediately for consultation and medical advice.
- Food delivery is not allowed inside offices. All deliveries must be received and consumed in the food court on the ground floor of the Student Hub building.
